Career conversation and discovery

Concerned About Your Next Step?

Stop

- Calm yourself down. Take a few deep breaths.

Think

- Think through the different options that are available for you. Keep things in perspective.
- Remember that the O-Level is not the end point and is only one part of your life journey.

Do

- Have conversations with trusted adults who know you well to advise and guide you (parents, teachers, ECG counsellor).
- Decide and act based on your options.

When you receive your results, you may experience a range of emotions.

Managing these emotions well will allow you to stay calm and make rational decisions.

Reaching out for support is a sign of strength

If you have questions about your options or are not coping well, you can reach out to trusted adults such as a parent/guardian, teacher, school Counsellor or ECG Counsellor. You can also talk to a trusted friend.

Who can we go to for ECG advice?

Make an appointment to speak with your ECG Counsellor in school

OR

How can we support one another?

Supporting Your Friend

- We may each experience different emotions upon receiving the results.
- You can share your friends' joy by congratulating them or give words of encouragement to friends who may be disappointed with their results.

Keep a lookout for your friends in distress. You can support them in the following ways:

Support is readily available for you.
